Editor's Foreword

The 1962 Time 'N' Tide is proudly presented to you by the annual staff of Vancleave High School.

The present is always built on the past. We have chosen to give you a record of our school year, because we are proud of it's accomplishments. Our victories were many; our defeats, heartbreaking. Perhaps all of it, a good picture of life.

To the seniors, this year has been one we know you will long remember in the years to come. May this volume hold many cherished memories of your days at V.H.S.

The Time 'N' Tide, which was ours for so long, now is yours. It is the sincere hope of the annual staff that throughout these pages you will find something that will help you to re-live your high school days. If this is accomplished, then our purpose will have been fulfilled.

My sincere thanks and appreciation go out to the staff of fine people for their cooperation and the many hours of hard work which they so deligently gave to make this yearbook possible.

Editor
Edith Mallette

Dedication

The staff of the Time 'N' Tide respectfully dedicates the 1961-62 edition to Mrs. Opal Vaughn. She has been instrumental in publishing the annual every year she has been in our school. She has taught us all we know about an annual. We respect her standards of quality, workmanship, and responsibility.

Always helping whenever she can, "Miss Opal" has devoted many hours sponsoring school activities.

It is with this dedication, that we express our appreciation for the years so unselfishly spent on us.

ADMINISTRATION

I think this yearbook expresses the abilities, leadership, and cooperation of this year's Senior Class and their sponsors. May it help to enliven many fond memories of the fellowship and educational enrichment of the 1961-62 session.

Sincerely,

L. J. Pennell
